

Rebecca Rodríguez, Ed.D.

Dr. Rebecca Rodriguez has served as an educator since 1995. Her career began as a bilingual classroom teacher at a 90/90/90 charter school in LAUSD. Soon after, she moved to Whittier City School District where she continued her career as a bilingual teacher, ELD specialist, literacy instructional coach, and for the past 7 years, the principal at the only Dual Immersion school in the district. Over the last two years, her school earned the Gold Ribbon Award, the Title I Achievement Award, and the CABE Seal of Excellence Award. Rebecca earned her doctorate from CSULA in Urban Education. She has presented her original research at AERA on the implementation of the CCSS in an urban school setting. Dr. Rodriguez has provided professional development workshops to school teams on designated ELD, SLD, and ALD, dual immersion, second language acquisition and a balanced literacy approach for ELLs. She has lead school teams on lesson studies and EL Shadowing. She has extensive experience in developing a DI program and curriculum design. She has many years of coaching teachers in data collection as the driving force for differentiated instruction, reclassification of ELs, and goal setting to close the achievement gap for ELLs.
