KEYNOTE SPEAKER

ORADOR PRINCIPAL

Jaime Carias

EmpowermentED

Jaime Carias, M.P.P., is a nationally award-winning educator, bilingual author, and highly sought-after empowerment speaker known for his expertise in family and community engagement. He served as the Founding Director of the USC Annenberg Youth Academy and was a Fellow in Civic Engagement at the USC Annenberg Center for Third Space Thinking. With over 20 years of experience in education, Jaime equips educators, parents, and students with the mindsets and skillsets needed to thrive in the after-COVID stage of education. An architect of culturally responsive programs, he draws on his humble upbringing in South Central Los Angeles to inspire communities by embodying the motto "Give yourself a chance" and inspiring others to create and define their legacies. The proud son of Guatemalan immigrants, he holds degrees from UC Santa Barbara and the USC Sol Price School of Public Policy. He is currently working on a memoir reflecting on his journey from living with a stuttering disability to becoming a leading advocate in K-12 and higher education.

Jaime Carias, M.P.P., es un educador galardonado a nivel nacional, autor bilingüe y conferencista motivacional muy solicitado, reconocido por su experiencia en el involucramiento familiar y comunitario. Se desempeñó como Director Fundador de la Academia Juvenil de USC Annenberg y fue Becario en

Participación Cívica en el Centro de Pensamiento del Tercer Espacio de USC Annenberg. Con más de 20 años de experiencia en educación, Jaime capacita a educadores, padres y estudiantes con las mentalidades y habilidades necesarias para prosperar en la etapa educativa pos-COVID. Como arquitecto de programas culturalmente sensibles, recurre a su humilde crianza en South Central Los Ángeles para inspirar a las comunidades, personificando el lema "Date una oportunidad" e inspirando a otros a crear y definir sus legados. Orgulloso hijo de inmigrantes guatemaltecos, posee títulos de la Universidad de California en Santa Bárbara y de la escuela de políticas públicas Sol Price de USC. Actualmente, está trabajando en una memoria que refleja su viaje desde vivir con una discapacidad de tartamudez hasta convertirse en un defensor líder en la educación primaria, secundaria y superior.

STUDENT ENTERTAINMENT

Yaopiltzin is a group of Echo Valley NEST students who have been learning Aztec dancing since September 2024. Their interest in learning how to dance came after they saw an Aztec dance performance by Calpulli Yaocuauhtli during Flipper Fest at the end of the 2023 school year.

This group of students practices two times a week and are great learners.

Yaopiltzin es un grupo de estudiantes del programa NEST de Echo Valley que han estado aprendiendo danza azteca desde septiembre el año 2024. Su interés en aprender a bailar surgió después de que vieron un grupo de danza azteca, Calpulli Yaocuauhtli, durante el festival Flipper a finales del año escolar 2023.

Este grupo de estudiantes practica dos veces por semana y aprenden muy bien.

Be a Part of the Next Generation of Bilingual Educators!

High School Student Scholarships for Future Dual Language Education Teachers

CABE, in partnerships with Vista and High Performing Learning Environments (HPLE) consulting firm, is offering $1,000 scholarships to high school students who are currently serving as tutors, volunteering, and/or providing community service in Dual Language Education programs and are interested in becoming a bilingual teacher. This application is open to juniors and seniors who have demonstrated proficiency in a world language via coursework or a bilingual pathway. The scholarship recipients will be recognized at the CABE 2025 Annual Conference. The goal of this scholarship is to encourage California's K-12 students to pursue careers as bilingual teachers for the growing dual language immersion schools across the state. Recipients of the award will be recognized at the annual CABE Conference.

NEW! CABE/VISTA FUTURE DUAL LANGUAGE EDUCATION (DLE) TEACHER AWARD

Vista Higher Learning's singular focus is developing print and digital solutions that meet the needs of all language learners—those learning a new language, improving a second language, or perfecting their native language. Vista is now taking the next logical step in promoting language fluency by offering scholarships to future dual language educators.

NEW! CABE/HPLE FUTURE DUAL LANGUAGE EDUCATION (DLE) TEACHER AWARD

The community is the heart of the culture at HPLE. They make a conscious effort to be an outstanding corporate citizen in the communities in which they work by providing student-centric program and construction management services that increase student performance while delivering world-class educational facilities. It is HPLE's belief that all children have the potential to do great things and that all students deserve every opportunity to excel and discover their passions in a learning environment that is not determined by their socio-economic status.

Identifying and Managing Autism Spectrum Disorders in Public Preschools

Cathlene Álvarez, CSU, Monterey Bay
Kerrie Lemons-Chitwood, CSU, Monterey Bay

Language: English
Level: Preschool
Audience: All

Preschool teachers are often the 'front line' for identifying signs and symptoms of Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD). Communicating their concerns and suspicions to parents in a positive manner is an important first step to pursuing more assessment (educationally and/or medically-clinically). This is also vital to beginning conversations about what 'having Autism' means. Preschool teachers also have a unique role in helping to create neuro-diverse friendly and productive learning environment for their students with ASD.

The logo for CABE's 50th anniversary in 2025. It features the word "cabe" in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. The number "50" is large, bold, and gold-colored, with a small "th" superscript. The year "2025" is in a blue, outlined, sans-serif font. A gold ribbon banner curves across the bottom of the "50", with the word "ANNIVERSARY" written in blue capital letters. The entire logo is set against a dark blue background with white radiating lines behind the "50".
